Striving for Excellence in Service

Dr Rob Bakss

Strategy and planning are at the heart of all successful businesses. For organisations to truly maintain a competitive advantage they must have a strategy that ensures future actions are aligned to the needs of their people, business, and customers, with a well-understood target state established.

Partnering with an experienced business consultant to enhance business strategy with pragmatic independent advice is the best way to enable , development, innovation and transformation in your organisation.

My consulting focuses on practical proven methods and skills to help you soar higher in leadership and include the following workshop pathways:

Consulting includes:

- Developing Business Plans
- Designing Strategies & Systems
- Drafting Policies & Procedures
- Discussing & Brainstorming
- Defining Mission & Vision
- Doing HR Functions
- Delivering Training
